Abstract: Brad Ferguson

This is part of the Wessendorff Family history series of oral history interviews. Brad Ferguson is a nephew of Loise Wessendorff. In this interview Brad describes Loise's fathers' mechanical genius and his success in the cotton trade. The area of Houston now called the Museum District, is where Loise's family home was. Their family friends, many important Houston names, are mentioned. Brad has memories of family trips up to Hunt, Texas and to Loise's property on the Blanco River. He also talks admiringly about Joe Clyde Wessendorff as a businessman.

An Interview List of the People, Places/Businesses, and Events mentioned in the interview will be added later.
